

PROCLAMATION
National Association of Letter Carriers' Food Drive Day
May 9, 2020

WHEREAS, the vibrant and time-honored traditions of caring in Franklin shine proudly forth through the noteworthy contributions faithfully rendered by the dedicated letter carriers in our City who, in addition to maintaining high quality standards of mail delivery, are always eager to do their part to help to make a positive difference in the lives of the people they serve; and

WHEREAS, the United States Postal Service is working to support the sound goals of the National Association of Letter Carriers Food Drive Campaign, a very successful venture which collects canned goods for distribution to Franklin citizens in need after the holidays; and

WHEREAS, during this special day, letter carriers will, on a volunteer basis, pick up non-perishable food items that are left by the mailboxes of concerned citizens in Franklin and will deliver them to the Community Services Food Bank for those who are less fortunate; and

WHEREAS, Franklin is pleased to join with the NALC Food Drive Campaign volunteers in saluting the United States Postal Service and our outstanding letter carriers for participating in this valuable campaign, and in applauding the generosity of everyone who will be leaving items for pickup by these compassionate and civic-minded letter carriers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that I, Douglas A. Baker, Mayor of the City of Franklin, do hereby proclaim May 9, 2020, as "National Association of Letter Carriers' Food Drive Day," and ask that the citizens of Franklin join with me in the worthwhile cause and HELP US HELP OUR COMMUNITY.

Douglas A. Baker, Mayor
